Decrees of a Regime of Exception, Honduras 1890-1956

The following is a comprehensive list of each estado de sitio, a regime of exception in which constitutionally guaranteed civil liberties are suspended for a specifically stated period of time or indefinitely, declared between 1890-1956.

The vast majority of the decrees cited below were published in La Gaceta, the official legislative digest of the government of Honduras. When the records of La Gaceta could not be located, the Boletín Legislativo was consulted. In this table, “date” refers to the day that a decree was proclaimed and not the date it was published.

Decrees of a Regime of Exception, Costa Rica 1890-1956

The following is a comprehensive list of each time that constitutionally guaranteed civil liberties were suspended in Costa Rica between 1890-1956.

The vast majority of the decrees cited below were published in La Gaceta, the official legislative digest of the government of Costa Rica. I then crosschecked the records of La Gaceta with information recorded in Leyes y decretos. In this table, “date” refers to the day that a decree was proclaimed and not the date it was published.
